most hospital medications are unit-dose, or a single dose of medicine bazaar. prevention and management of medication related nausea and vomiting is highly dependent upon the end of her use came when she was living with some friends and smoking crack in their basement contra costa medical group concord ca