during this same period, a national standardization process building on health level 7 (hl7) standards has progressed, distracting pharmacy vendors from building a provincial system.

is sitting outside in the cold for breakfast and underdressing for the cold on the way to the train considered.