there are many drugs that are not well tolerated in the elderly or in an over-medicated resident with compromised liver and renal function.

there are many drugs that are not well tolerated in the elderly or in an over-medicated resident with compromised liver and renal function.